About Venue

Amsterdam ,Netherlands

Amsterdam, the capital of the Netherlands, is a city celebrated for its stunning canals, historic charm, and vibrant culture. Known as the "Venice of the North," it boasts a unique urban layout with over 100 kilometers of canals, lined by 17th-century gabled houses, earning it a UNESCO World Heritage status. Founded in the 12th century as a small fishing village, Amsterdam flourished during the Dutch Golden Age in the 17th century, becoming a global trading hub. Today, it is a cultural treasure trove, home to iconic attractions such as the Rijksmuseum, featuring masterpieces by Rembrandt and Vermeer, the Van Gogh Museum, and the poignant Anne Frank House. Its historic Jordaan district enchants visitors with its narrow streets, boutique shops, and cozy cafes, while the modern Eye Filmmuseum and Stedelijk Museum reflect its forward-thinking spirit.
